Divorce Without Court

A BETTER WAY TO DIVORCE

Julia Perkovich is a dedicated divorce mediator with more than 15 years of experience helping families navigate divorce without the need for court involvement. Her practice focuses exclusively on mediation, offering a thoughtful, structured alternative to traditional litigation, which can often be chaotic, stressful, and costly. Known for her caring approach, creativity, and unwavering follow-through, Julia fosters a supportive environment where clients can work toward lasting, practical solutions.

Julia’s passion for family law began early. Her parents, Don and Nancy Perkovich were both family law attorneys, who owned a firm for 30 years. When Julia was in law school at UC Davis and her father retired, her mother, who was a pioneer for female attorneys, invited her to join the family practice. Julia developed a deep understanding of complex business analysis and litigation strategies through her mother’s mentorship, leading to a career in mediation.

Her mission is to provide families with a successful alternative to the traditional, often continuous, and flawed litigation model. Through her mediation process, she offers a tailored approach designed to meet the unique needs of each family, emphasizing respect, efficiency, and durable outcomes.

Julia offers two distinct mediation models: one without attorney involvement, in which clients attend sessions directly and may consult attorneys outside of mediation at their discretion; and one with attorney involvement, where both clients and their attorneys actively participate in the sessions. In both models, she guides clients through the entire divorce process from start to finish, often collaborating with trusted divorce professionals. Since dedicating her practice exclusively to mediation in 2017, Julia has resolved over 90 percent of her mediation cases. Julia’s mediation process consistently leads to efficient and thorough resolutions. Her approach balances clear guidance with empowering clients to make their own informed decisions. She has extensive experience assisting business owners and couples with complex or sophisticated estates, ensuring that families receive comprehensive, personalized support throughout their journey. Clients consistently describe Julia as professional yet compassionate, organized, and detail oriented. They value her responsiveness, structure, and genuine care for their well-being and future. Julia’s clients often express gratitude for the clarity, confidence, and peace of mind her process provides during an uncertain time in their lives. Outside of her practice, Julia loves traveling, exploring new cultures and cuisines, playing golf with her husband, and cheering on her children. At home, her family’s massive cat and doodle keep life entertaining. Looking ahead, Julia hopes to continue to expand her work with clients who have complex businesses and more sophisticated estates, continuing her mission to make the divorce process more respectful, efficient, and empowering for families.

Client Testimonials:

“After a thirty-year marriage, we just finished a complex divorce with Julia. Julia’s practical, yet professional approach maintained our tempers and our dignity by coming to a settlement that was not perfect for either of us, but probably the definition of a compromise.”

“Julia was transparent and had a great deal of integrity in respect of her time and unnecessary expense. I highly recommend Julia, she made a difficult circumstance much easier with a fair outcome for myself and my husband.”

“Although divorce is challenging on many levels, Julia’s knowledge, care, and professionalism was of tremendous value during our mediation process. She did a great job facilitating the “difficult conversations” while helping my former spouse and I remain focused on the goal of successfully reaching a balanced outcome.”
